

President's Letter

NETWORKING: the process of developing and using personal contacts, referrals, organizations, etc. to get professional, occupational and other information, help or advice.

One of the many benefits of being a member of the Home Builders Association of the Greater Pee Dee is the many networking opportunities available to you. Smart business people know the value of being able to discuss issues affecting their company with peers, trade allies and even competitors. Involvement with this association as a builder, I find it amazing how many competitors are willing to discuss business ideas with each other. I was once like many of you a member who paid my dues, glanced at the newsletter, came at least once a year to a meeting, and rocked on. After being asked to serve on the Board and committing to service. I have learned so much about the building industry and the importance of working together to reach common goals. It is the teamwork and friendships that makes our association unique.

Politics and the economy are the two driving forces that we are all concerned about today. I encourage each of you to become aware of what is going on regarding these issues in our communities, our State and National. It starts with one voice to create change.

One Vision.....One Voice

Thank you to our local governments who continue to support our communities. All Building Departments are doing permitting, plan review, and inspections.

Interest Rates are at an all time LOW and it is a GREAT time to purchase a Home.
